PORTRAITURE

Rabi Pirzada is a well known Pakistani former pop singer, artist and calligrapher. She started her career as singer in 2005 and she has been painting since she was eight years old. She is a self-taught artist but comes to know about art specifics by an art teacher, J. Arif. She started with Arabic calligraphy in 2019 and continues to do Arabic calligraphy of Quran in various forms, including calligraphing the complete scripture. Later, she started painted various objects as well as portraits. On a commercial side, she sells her paintings to support orphan children and needy people. She have been involved in the art field since her childhood and her art is highly appreciated in Pakistan and other countries. She has created many masterpieces in art, most of her paintings reflect the culture of Punjab, child education and emotions. She has a very high level of realistic art skills, which is a sight to behold. In addition, over the past few years, she has created numerous artworks of Arabic calligraphy in different fonts. Her paintings and calligraphy has been exhibited in Islamabad and Lahore (Pakistan) and being exhibited in this year at Alhamra Art Council Lahore Pakistan under the supervision of a senior architect Nayyar Ali Dada.
